

Impartiality Statement

We, at DQS India, hereby stand committed to ensure that we carry out our Management System Certification activities impartially throughout the System Certification process. We are also committed to ensure that any other activities taken up by us as an organisation will not constitute a Conflict of Interest with the Management System Certification process.

The potential threats to the Conflicts of Interest are evaluated and managed by the organisation in a structured manner and we ensure that the decision making process is objective in nature and is based on the evidences provided by the client.

